

VOICING SHAKESPEARE: A Text Detection Workshop

with Michael Corbidge ,Senior Voice and Text Associate Royal Shakespeare Company

DATE: 18th May 2019 TIME: 9.30am—5pm

LOCATION: Betchworth Village Hall

PRICE: £30 to include light lunch

Whether you are an experienced Shakespeare buff or simply want to discover the joys of text and character for the first time, or are an actor looking to delve deeper, this workshop will have plenty to offer you.

An opportunity to ‘buff and shine’, tried and tested ways of speaking and performing Shakespeare.

Experience a visceral connection to Shakespeare’s text and a chance to let the words live in space un-hindered by previous expectations. Getting out of the head and into the body. A world of gorgeous sound awaits.

Michael has created a tool box and practical kit to build confidence with text, voice, physicality and character and aid in the quest for sense and emotional logic.

We shall be chomping our way through some of Shakespeare best loved works!

Join Michael—respected NODA summer school tutor for an animated, fun-filled workshop.

To book contact Julie Bickerdike

Email : bickerdikes@gmail.com Tel: 07711 317417

Places are limited so please do book your place early.