This production has been adapted for B.O.D.S. by Ian Stone and Alison Cooper.

Set in the early 19th century, this is the tale of a respected weaver who is falsely accused of theft, betrayed by his best friend and spurned by his fiancée. Driven from the town by the bigotry of the community and mistrusted by the villagers of Raveloe, Silas Marner lives a solitary existence in which human contact is replaced by the acquisition of gold from his trade, until an abandoned child brings joy back into his life.

Doors open at 7pm with a bar serving wine, beer and soft drinks.

Tickets are £12, or £10 seniors/under-16s, and may be reserved for collection on the door. We can accept cash or cheques.
